

Please do not tinker with New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law. It's working extremely well for our purposes, and should not be watered down just to meet standards that might be more applicable to other parts of the country. Thank you.